LETTER FROM THE CHIEF

Dear Collectors,

We had a very successful World Stamp Show in New York City this May/June, and we thank all of the participants that visited our booth and first day of issue ceremonies. We are particularly excited to see many of you and learn of your relentless support of the UNPA stamp programmes.

For this summer, UNPA will issue a new set of stamps on the theme "Sport for Peace" to promote the message of the Olympic Truce for the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. UNPA is working closely with the International Olympic Committee and the UN Office on Sport for Development and Peace to develop and issue these new colourful Olympic stamps. The artist Nick Iluzada has done a wonderful job illustrating some of the most popular sporting events at the Olympics.

In September, the UNPA will continue its very popular World Heritage stamp series, featuring sites in the Czech Republic. This will be our first joint stamp issue with the Czech Post, and there will be a special first day of issue ceremony in Prague to launch these stamps. The stamps, along with the beautifully designed prestige booklet, tell about the rich history of this amazing country.

UNPA is also pleased to announce the introduction of a new type of special event sheet which will be issued on 10 August for the 32nd Asian International Stamp Exhibition (AISE) in Bangkok, Thailand. This special event "mini-sheet" will contain three stamps, and UNPA plans to use this new format to issue special event sheets in conjunction with various stamp exhibits that UNPA will attend in the future. For the first issue for the 32nd AISE, the new mini-sheet will contain stamps denominated in US dollars, Swiss francs and euros. This is possibly the first stamp sheets in the market issued with three currencies on them.

I value your interest in the UNPA stamp programme, and look forward to developing new and exciting stamps for you. As always, we welcome your comments and suggestions.

Thanawat Amnajanjan

FOR YOUR INFORMATION—THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

UNITED NATIONS STAMPS USED FOR MAILING

United Nations stamps in United States Dollar denominations are valid for postage only if mailed at United Nations Headquarters in New York. Stamps in Swiss franc denominations are valid for postage only if mailed at the Palais des Nations Geneva, Switzerland. Stamps in Euro denominations are valid for postage only if mailed at the Vienna International Centre, Austria.

PRICES

Stamps are sold at face value. UN/Geneva and UN/Vienna stamps are sold at US dollar equivalent rates, rounded up to the nearest cent. The US dollar equivalents of the euro and Swiss franc denomination stamps are subject to fluctuating exchange rates.

SALES AND EXCHANGES

Every effort is made to provide UNPA customers with materials of the highest philatelic quality. Therefore, all sales are final and no exchange or refund will be made except where stamps are received in damaged condition.

REGISTRATION THRESHOLD

UNPA changed the registration threshold amount effective 15 July 2014. Orders valued at $200.00 and above are automatically registered.

WHEN ORDERING BY MAIL

The item numbers used in this issue of Fascination identify the products and should be written on the order form in the Item Number column. The next column asks for a description of each item as a cross reference. In this space, you may also indicate any specific requests, e.g., special marginal inscription (M.I.) positions. Fill in the price in the appropriate column. Multiply the price by the number required of that particular item and enter the resulting figure in the Amount column on the order form. Total your order, and indicate whether registration of the order is requested. Add postage and handling charges. Enclose your remittance and mail to the indicated address.

The new-issue stamps, stationery or other philatelic items have been pre-printed on the order form for your convenience.

All items listed in the Philatelic Products Currently Available section of this issue of Fascination may be ordered on this form, subject to availability of stock.

Please allow at least four weeks for delivery.

For faster service in processing your orders, please visit the UNPA website: unstamps.org

Postage stamps and stamp-related products purchased from the United Nations Postal Administration are not subject to sales tax.

NEWS & NOTEWORTHY

BULLETIN No. 118

UNPA would like to advise customers that the final design of the UNIDO's 50th Anniversary Special Event Sheet is different from the one that appears in Bulletin No. 118. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

SPECIAL NOTE TO CUSTOMERS

UNPA would like to inform customers that there is a new standing order product type for the event sheets. Customers with standing order requirements for event sheet products have now been converted to receive the new special event mini-sheet. If these established customers do not wish to receive or have different requirements, please contact UNPA to amend them requirements. Other customers who wish to add the new special event mini-sheets product type can do so by contacting UNPA.

On 22 July 2016, the UN Postal Administration will issue a set of stamps to promote the contribution of sport to peace. The date of issue comes exactly a week ahead of the start of the Olympic Truce period for this year's 2016 Summer Olympic and Paralympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Based on the ancient Greek tradition of ekecheiria, which calls for a truce during the Olympic Games to encourage a peaceful environment and ensure safe passage, in 1993 the United Nations revived this ideal by passing General Assembly Resolutions in every Olympic year to urge Member States to respect the Olympic Truce. Through its most recent resolution in October 2015, the General Assembly called on Member States to observe the Truce from the seventh day before the start of the XXXI Olympic Summer Games until the seventh day following the end of the XV Paralympic Summer Games in Rio de Janeiro.

UNPA has partnered with the International Olympic Committee and the UN Office on Sport for Development and Peace to develop and issue these colourful stamps which feature several Olympic sports.

The Olympic movement inspires people to contribute to a peaceful future for humankind through the educational value of sport. It brings together athletes from all parts of the world for the Olympic Games. One of the objectives of this great international sporting event is to promote peace, respect, mutual understanding and goodwill, goals it shares with the United Nations.

Heritage is our legacy from the past, what we live with today and what we pass on to future generations. Our cultural and natural heritage are both irreplaceable sources of life and inspiration. The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) seeks to encourage the identification, protection and preservation of cultural and natural heritage around the world considered to be of outstanding value to humanity. This is embodied in an international treaty called the Convention concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage, adopted by UNESCO in 1972.

UNPA is pleased to feature World Heritage sites from the Czech Republic for its 2016 World Heritage stamp series. These stamps are part of a joint stamp issuance with the Czech Post and a special joint first day of issue ceremony is planned on 8 September at the Sberatel 2016 – 19th International Hobby & Art of Collecting Fair in Prague, Czech Republic.

47¢ – Historic Centre of Prague

Prague is one of the most beautiful cities in Europe in terms of its setting on both banks of the Vltava River, adorned with its distinctive townscape of houses, palaces with towers, and buildings. Built between the 11th and 18th centuries, the Old Town, the Lesser Town and the New Town speak of the great architectural and cultural influence enjoyed by this city since the Middle Ages. The site was inscribed on the World Heritage list in 1992.

Item No. 301.4487

Item No. 301.4488

CHF 1,00 – Gardens and Castle at Kroměříž

The gardens and castle at Kroměříž are an exceptionally complete and well preserved example of a European Baroque princely residence and its associated landscape of the 17th and 18th centuries. The ensemble at Kroměříž, played a significant role in the development of Baroque garden and palace design in central Europe. It was inscribed on the World Heritage list in 1998.

Item No. 501.4489

Item No. 501.4490

€ 0,68 – Kutná Hora: Historical Town Centre with the Church of St. Barbara and the Cathedral of Our Lady at Sedlec

From the early 14th century to the early 16th century, Kutná Hora was the second most important town in the Kingdom of Bohemia after Prague. This is still apparent in the town's exceptional wealth of historical architecture. This site was inscribed on the World Heritage list in 1995 as an outstanding example of the medieval town whose wealth and prosperity was based on its silver mines.

The Church of St. Barbara and other buildings were underlined as having particular architectural and artistic quality and as having had a profound influence on subsequent developments in the architecture of Central Europe.

STAMP DESIGNS

$1.15 – Holy Trinity Column in Olomouc

The Holy Trinity Column in Olomouc is one of the most exceptional examples of the pinnacle of central European Baroque artistic expression. This memorial column, erected in the early years of the 18th century, is the most outstanding example of a type of monument specific to central Europe. Rising to a height of 35 metres, it is decorated with many fine religious sculptures, which are the work of the distinguished Moravian artist Ondřej Zahner. It was inscribed on the World Heritage list in 2000.

CHF 1,50 – Lednice-Valtice Cultural Landscape

Between the 17th and 20th centuries, the ruling dukes of Liechtenstein transformed their territories in southern Moravia into a striking landscape. It combined Baroque architecture – mainly the work of Johann Bernhard Fischer von Erlach – and the classical and neo-Gothic styles of the castles of Lednice and Valtice with countryside fashioned according to English romantic principles of landscape architecture. At 200 square kilometres, it is one of the largest artificial landscapes in Europe. It was inscribed on the World Heritage list in 1996.

€ 1,70 – Historic Centre of Český Krumlov

The historic centre of Český Krumlov is situated on the banks of the Vltava river, which provides a natural setting of great beauty. The town was built around a 13th-century castle belonging to a member of the ruling Vitkovici family. This historic centre is an outstanding example of a small central European medieval town whose architectural heritage has remained relatively intact thanks to its peaceful history over more than five centuries. It was inscribed on the World Heritage list in 1992.
