LETTER FROM THE CHIEF

Dear Collectors,

Welcome to this edition of Fascination. In this edition, we have some exciting news to share with you! United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) has achieved a Guinness book of World Records for its Universal Declaration of Human Rights souvenir sheet, which was issued on 27 October 2017, for the most words on a postage stamp: 1,969. UNPA is very proud of this accomplishment.

For the remainder of 2018, UNPA has a full programme scheduled.

In August, UNPA will continue its very popular World Heritage series focusing on six sites in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. UNPA will also issue three beautifully designed prestige booklets that tell all about these incredible places.

In October, UNPA will issue three mini-sheets of stamps to commemorate International Music Day. The stamps illustrate the musical instruments of brass and woodwinds, strings and percussion and were designed by Sergio Baradat of graphic design team of UNPA.

UNPA will also issue three definitive stamps in October that feature the famous sculpture at United Nations Headquarters, Non-Violence.

We also have some interesting special event sheets that are featured in this bulletin. In September, a New York sheet featuring "Thomas and Friends" will be issued as well as a special event mini-sheet for the Thirty-fifth Aisian International Stamp Exhibition (AISE) in Macau, which was printed using a special laser-cutting technique. In October, a New York sheet to commemorate the festival of Diwali will be issued, and a special event mini-sheet will be released for the Verona Stamp Show in Italy.

The 2018 Annual Collection folders will also be issued, as well as two Vienna revalued pre-stamped postcards.

We hope that you enjoy adding these new stamps and products to your collection.

As always, we thank you for your interest in United Nations stamps, and we welcome your comments and suggestions.

Thanawat Amnajanan

Postal Administration

ISRAEL 2018 WORLD STAMP CHAMPIONSHIP

UNPA has decided not to issue the Israel 2018 World Stamp Championship stamp sheet as previously advised. Instead, UNPA has produced a special show card for this event. Please find below the image of the show card, which can be purchased by using the order form attached to this Fascination.

2018 INTERNATIONAL MUSIC DAY

International Music Day is celebrated on 1 October each year. The day was established in 1975 by the International Music Council (IMC), which was founded by UNESCO in 1949. Music is essential to many of our lives and is a powerful platform that brings people together across cultures. The main objectives of the Day are to celebrate the importance of music and musicians worldwide and to promote its value in society by building peace and understanding through a common language.

UNPA will issue three mini-sheets of twelve stamps to celebrate International Music Day on 1 October 2018. The stamps, featuring brass and woodwinds, strings and percussion, were designed by Sergio Baradat (United Nations).

NEW YORK AND VIENNA DEFINITIVES

On 2 October 2018, UNPA will issue three definitive stamps featuring images of Non-Violence. This well-known sculpture for peace and non-violence was created in 1980 by the Swedish artist Carl Fredrik Reuterswärd as a tribute to John Lennon. Non-Violence sculptures are placed in more than 30 strategic locations worldwide, including the United Nations Headquarters in New York City, the Olympic Museum in Lausanne and the Peace Park in Beijing.

The Non-Violence sculpture is used as a symbol by the Non-Violence Project Foundation, a non-profit organization promoting peace and social change through education; to inspire, motivate and engage young people to understand how to solve conflicts peacefully. The artwork for the 1¢ definitive stamp is an engraving by Martin Mörck (Norway). The €0,90 and €2,30 definitive stamps are painted gun sculptures that are part of the Non-Violence Art Project. For more information about the Non-Violence Project Foundation, please visit: www.nonviolence.com.
