UNITED AGAINST RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION

On 19 March 2021, the United Nations Postal Administration will issue three mini-sheets of 10 stamps each on the theme "United Against Racism and Discrimination". The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is 21 March annually.

Since its creation in 1945, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) has been on the forefront of the fight against racism. In 1978, it adopted the Declaration on Race and Racial Prejudice, which reaffirms that "All human beings belong to a single species and are descended from a common stock. They are born equal in dignity and rights and all form an integral part of humanity". This quote appears on the stamp sheets in English, French and German respectively.

For this stamp series, the United Nations Postal Administration focuses on the UNESCO Master Class Series against Racism and Discriminations. Launched in November 2019 as a global "training for trainers" initiative, the series seeks to empower students to become youth champions in their own schools and communities, and spread awareness on how to deconstruct the mechanisms underlying racism and discriminations. Using a human-rights-based approach, the courses address various topics related to inclusion and non-discrimination, such as racial discrimination, gender-based discrimination, rights of indigenous peoples and discrimination against persons with disabilities.

"The Master Class" series artwork that appears on the stamp sheets was created by Abracadabra Design Studio (Mexico). To learn more about UNESCO and the Master Class series, please visit <https://en.unesco.org/themes/fostering-rights-inclusion/masterclass>.

ENDANGERED SPECIES 2021

On 7 April, the United Nations Postal Administration will issue its 2021 Endangered Species stamps featuring species of fauna and flora that are endemic or unique to a certain environment or region.

The Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) is an international agreement between Governments. Currently, there are 183 States Parties to the Convention, which aims to ensure that international trade in specimens of wild animals and plants does not threaten their survival.

For over 25 years, the United Nations Postal Administration has issued stamps to celebrate the many beautiful and varied forms of wild fauna and flora worldwide and to raise awareness about the multitude of benefits of conservation.

THE ARTIST

The stamps were illustrated by Juan Carlos Alonso (Cuban American).

Juan Carlos Alonso is a Cuban-American illustrator, author, graphic designer and creative director. He has over 30 years of experience in the graphic design/illustration field. His passion for nature has taken him around the world – from Australia to Alaska to the Galapagos Islands – to study animals, both on land and in the sea. He is the co-author and illustrator of the Ancient Earth series of books as well as author/illustrator of the Animal Journal series. Mr. Alonso is a three-time winner of the Outstanding Science Trade Books for Students and the Children's Choices Reading List selection of the International Literacy Association. Juan Carlos lives in Coconut Grove, Florida, United States of America, with his wife and daughter.

2021 CHINESE LUNAR CALENDAR – YEAR OF THE OX

NEW YORK SPECIAL EVENT SHEET $1.20

Item No.394.4900

On 22 January 2021, the United Nations Postal Administration will continue its Chinese Lunar Calendar series with the issuance of a special event sheet celebrating the Year of the Ox. This is the twelfth sheet issued for the United Nations Postal Administration's Lunar New Year stamp series, completing the zodiac cycle in the series. The sheet is composed of ten $1.20-denominated stamps with the United Nations logo. The tabs of the stamps and background design feature artwork by Wang Huming (China).

The Chinese Lunar New Year's Day is 12 February 2021, which starts the year of the Ox and lasts until 30 January 2022. It will be a Metal Ox year. The recent zodiac years of the Ox sign are: 1961, 1973, 1985, 1997, 2009, 2021. People born in the year of the Ox are known for diligence, dependability, strength and determination, and having an honest nature. Having great patience and a desire to make progress, Oxen can achieve their goals by consistent effort. They are not much influenced by others or the environment but persist in doing things according to their ideals and capabilities.
