NOTEWORTHY NEWS

WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER, HELP STOP THE SPREAD OF COVID-19

The United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) has raised over US$400,000 for the World Health Organization (WHO) COVID-19 Solidarity Response Fund from the sale of “We are all in this together, help stop the spread of COVID-19” stamps, which were issued in August 2020. Special recognition and thanks go to the China National Philatelic Agency, which had helped promote and sell a large number of these stamps in the People’s Republic of China. The Fund will be used by WHO and its partners to suppress transmission, reduce exposure, counter misinformation, protect the vulnerable, reduce mortality and morbidity, and accelerate equitable access to new COVID-19 tools such as vaccines, diagnostics and others.

SPORT FOR PEACE – OLYMPIC GAMES TOKYO 2020

On 23 July 2021, the United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) will issue its new "Sport for Peace" stamps and souvenir sheets to mark the start of the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020. The Games were postponed in 2020 owing to the COVID-19 pandemic and will be held from 23 July to 8 August 2021 in Tokyo.

The Olympic Movement inspires people to contribute to a peaceful future for humankind through the educational values of sport. It brings together athletes from all over the world for the Olympic Games, all of them representing more than 200 nations and territories in the world's foremost sport competition. One of the objectives of this great international sporting event is to promote peace, respect, mutual understanding, and goodwill – goals it shares with the United Nations.

UNPA has worked closely with the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in issuing these stamps. We aim to promote the positive influence that sport has on humankind, as we strive for peace and international understanding.

The three souvenir sheets feature the following text in English, French and German, respectively:

"The United Nations and the International Olympic Committee share the Universal values of respect, solidarity and peace and work through sport to build a more peaceful and better world. Together, they promote the Olympic Truce, in a spirit of global peace, tolerance, and understanding during the Olympic and Paralympic Games"

The stamps and souvenir sheets were illustrated by Satoshi Hashimoto of Japan.

MOTHER TERESA NEW YORK DEFINITIVE STAMP

On 12 August 2021, UNPA will issue a definitive stamp to honour Mother Teresa.

The quote on the stamp, which is in English, reads: "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love."

Mother Teresa, the renowned nun and missionary, was born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu in Macedonia in 1910. Her family was of Albanian descent. At age 12 she strongly felt the call of God and knew she wanted to be a missionary. At the age of 18 she went to India, where she devoted herself to helping the destitute. In 1948, she became an Indian citizen and founded the order of Missionaries of Charity in Kolkota (Calcutta) in 1950, which became noted for its work among the poor and the dying in that city.

For over 45 years she ministered to the poor, sick, orphaned and dying, while guiding the Missionaries of Charity's expansion, first in India and then in other countries, including hospices and homes for the poorest and homeless.

Mother Teresa's work has been recognized and acclaimed throughout the world. She received numerous awards and distinctions, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979 "for work undertaken in the struggle to overcome poverty and distress, which also constitute a threat to peace".

Mother Teresa died on 5 September 1997, at the age of 87 years. The United Nations designates 5 September annually as the International Day of Charity, which is the anniversary of the death of Mother Teresa.

WORLD HERITAGE (UNESCO) WATERWAYS, RAILWAYS AND BRIDGES

World Heritage sites belong to all the peoples of the world, irrespective of the territory on which they are located. Heritage is our legacy from the past, what we live with today and what we pass on to future generations.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) seeks to encourage the identification, protection and preservation of cultural and natural heritage around the world considered to be of outstanding value to humanity. This is embodied in an international treaty called the Convention concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage, adopted by UNESCO in 1972.

The United Nations Postal Administration is proud to present the 2021 World Heritage prestige booklet, featuring waterways, railways and bridges

PLEASE WELCOME UNPA'S NEW STAMP SHOW REPRESENTATIVES!

It is UNPA's pleasure to introduce Mr. David Bein as one of its new official representative for North America. Many stamp dealers and collectors throughout the country will know the company name Nordica as well as the faces of David and Audrey Bein, who have been in the stamp agency business since 1984. Attending many hundreds of shows throughout the years, they have become a familiar fixture at many philatelic exhibitions across the United States. Initially representing only the Faroe Islands, they have expanded to work closely with all of the Scandinavian countries, including Denmark, Greenland, Finland, Åland, Iceland, Sweden and Norway. They are now increasing their scope to work for the United Nations. Be sure to visit the UNPA booth and let David assist with your United Nations stamp collection.
