SPORT FOR PEACE 2022 BEIJING WINTER OLYMPICS

On 14 January 2022, the United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) issued new "Sport for Peace" stamps to celebrate the 2022 Beijing Winter Olympics. The XXIV Olympic Winter Games were scheduled to take place from 4 to 20 February 2022 in Beijing in the People's Republic of China.

In December 2021, the UN General Assembly adopted the Olympic Truce for Beijing 2022, highlighting the contribution of sport to the promotion of peace and solidarity.

The resolution entitled "Building a peaceful and better world through sport and the Olympic ideal" calls for the observance of the Olympic Truce for the Olympic and Paralympic Games Beijing 2022, from seven days before the start of the Olympic Games, on 4 February 2022, until seven days after the end of the Paralympic Games.

The Olympic Games provides a meaningful opportunity to harness the power of sport to foster an atmosphere of peace, development, resilience, tolerance and understanding among nations.

This is the first time that UNPA has issued stamps for the Olympic Winter Games.

CHINESE LUNAR CALENDAR – YEAR OF THE TIGER 2022

NEW YORK SPECIAL EVENT SHEET

On 21 January 2022, the United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) celebrated the Chinese Lunar Calendar with the issuance of a special event sheet for the "Year of the Tiger". The new lunar year officially begins on 1 February 2022 and ends on 21 January 2023.

The year 2022 marks the start of a new Chinese zodiac cycle for UNPA, as it completed the entire series of twelve animals in 2021. For this new cycle, UNPA is debuting a new sheet design and format. The ten US$ 1.30 denominated stamps feature the illustration of a Tiger, and the tabs to the left of the stamps have the United Nations emblem. The stamp sheets may be personalized with a photograph in place of the United Nations emblem. The stamps and the background of the sheet were illustrated by Tiger Pan (China), who also illustrated the Chinese Lunar Calendar Year of the dog stamps in 2018.

A special Year of the Tiger postcard featuring the same illustration as the stamps is also being issued.

Customers with standing order for New York special event sheets will automatically receive this sheet through their accounts. All other customers can purchase this item in mint or cancelled condition buy using the order form 1/2022.

BE A FOOD HERO LIKE THE TROLLS

NEW YORK SPECIAL EVENT SHEET $1.30

On 22 February 2022, UNPA issued a New York special event sheet for the #TrollsFoodHeroes campaign.

As part of the International Year of Fruits and Vegetables, the Trolls have joined the United Nations, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) and the United Nations Foundation in a global digital campaign to mobilize action for a healthy diet and sustainable living and add these actions to the United Nations ActNow initiative.

The happy and colorful characters from the DreamWorks Animation movie, Trolls, encourage their fans to become food heroes by eating healthier and reducing food waste.

The sheet of ten US$ 1.30 stamps features artwork and messaging for the campaign. The tabs of the stamps show the ActNow sustainable development goals logo.

You too can be a food hero like the Trolls by making choices that are good for your health and for the planet! #ActNow and help build a healthier planet. Go to www.un.org/actnow.

2022 ENDANGERED SPECIES

On 18 March 2022, the United Nations Postal Administration issued its 2022 Endangered Species stamps.

For over 25 years, UNPA has issued stamps to celebrate the many beautiful and varied forms of wild fauna and flora, and to raise awareness about the multitude of benefits that conservation provides to people.

The Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) is an international agreement between governments. It is a legally binding, multilateral agreement that sets the rules for international trade in wildlife.

The Convention regulates international trade in more than 38,000 species of wild animals and plants. Its purpose is to ensure that this trade is legal, sustainable and traceable, and that international trade in specimens of wild animals and plants does not threaten their survival.

WANGARI MAATHAI VIENNA DEFINITIVE STAMP

Item No. 701.7057

Item No. 708.7057

Item No. 813.7057

On 1 April 2022, UNPA issued a definitive stamp to commemorate the birth anniversary of Wangari Maathai who was born on 1 April 1940. The quote on the stamp, which is in German, reads "When we plant trees, we plant the seeds of peace and hope".

The € 0,85 stamp is part of a series of definitive stamps illustrated by Martin Mörck (Norway).

Over many decades, Wangari Maathai actively contributed to furthering the ideals and goals of the United Nations. A globally recognized champion of human rights and women's empowerment, Ms. Maathai was a pioneer in articulating the links between human rights, poverty, environmental protection and security. She was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 2004.

Born in Kenya, the daughter of farmers in the highlands of Mount Kenya, Ms. Maathai was the first woman in East and Central Africa to earn a doctoral degree. In 1977, she was appointed as Associate Professor of Veterinary Anatomy at the University of Nairobi and, that same year, she founded the Green Belt Movement. The grassroots environmental organization has assisted women and their families in planting more than 40 million trees across Kenya to protect the environment and promote sustainable livelihoods.

In recognition of her deep commitment, in December 2009, the Secretary-General named her a United Nations Messenger of Peace, with focus on the environment and climate change – a role she carried out effectively and enthusiastically until her passing on 25 September 2011.
