PLANET MARS

On 24 April 2022, the United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) will issue six new stamps and three souvenir sheets to celebrate human achievements on Planet Mars.

Mars has been a source of curiosity for centuries. In a historic year for exploration, three missions reached their destinations on, and around, the Red Planet in 2021. This stamp series marks those pioneering achievements.

1. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) Mars 2020 mission landed on Mars on 18 February 2021.

58c stamp – Proctor Crater of Mars
$1.30 stamp – Mars 2020 Perseverance Rover
$1.30 souvenir sheet – Mars 2020 Ingenuity Helicopter

2. The United Arab Emirates mission to Mars launched its Hope Probe which successfully entered Mars's orbit on 9 February 2021.

CHF 1,10 stamp – Planet Mars taken by United Arab Emirates Hope Probe
CHF 1,50 stamp – Emirates Mars Mission “Ready to Launch”
CHF 2,00 souvenir sheet – United Arab Emirates Hope Probe

3. The China Nations Space Administration (CNSA) launched its first Mars mission “Tianwen-1” which landed on Mars on 15 May 2021.

€0,85 stamp – pre-selected landing area for Tianwen-1 mission
€1,00 stamp – Zhurong Rover operating on Mars
€1,80 souvenir sheet – Zhurong Rover Landing Platform

As humankind races towards Mars, it is important that countries work together to promote international cooperation and peaceful use and exploration of space, and in the utilization of space science and technology for sustainable economic and social development. Since 1958, the United Nations Office for Outer Space Affairs (UNOOSA) has worked to promote these objectives.

WORLD HUMANITARIAN DAY

On 19 August 2003, a bomb attack on the United Nations office in Baghdad, Iraq, killed 22 humanitarian aid workers. Five years later, the General Assembly adopted a resolution designating 19 August as World Humanitarian Day to express solidarity with people affected by conflicts or natural disasters and pay tribute to the humanitarian workers who help them.

Each year, World Humanitarian Day brings together partners from across the humanitarian system to raise public awareness of humanitarian work; to advocate for the survival, well-being and dignity of people affected by crises; and to call for the safety and security of aid workers.

This year, on 19 August, UNPA will issue three stamp sheets for World Humanitarian Day, featuring beautiful artwork by award-winning illustrator Olga Shtonda from Kharkiv, Ukraine, to raise awareness and funding for humanitarian action. A surcharge will be added to the stamps, which will go directly to the United Nations Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF) to help people in need.

Managed by the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA), donating to CERF is one of the fastest ways to get urgent aid to the world's most vulnerable people whenever and wherever crises hit.

From Ukraine to Yemen and beyond, CERF funding reaches millions of people trapped in disasters and conflict, allowing humanitarian partners to save lives by providing urgently needed food, water, health care and much more.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Olga Shtonda is an illustrator and artist from Ukraine. She studied Graphic Arts at Kharkiv Design and Arts Academy (2009–2015), where she fell in love with printmaking techniques and textures, which greatly influenced her style.

Olga has received awards at many international illustration competitions. In 2019 she won the Ars in Fabula Grant Award and it gave her the opportunity to study in Italy and get the master's degree in editorial illustration. She is constantly learning and loves to apply her knowledge of illustration in a wider range of fields, for example, animation. Her illustrations adorned children's books, book covers, board games, music posters, etc.

Olga enjoys working with textures and vibrant colours, but most of all she appreciates humor in her illustrations.

In between illustrating, she loves traveling, riding her bicycle and observing people. It always helps Olga to collect materials, stories and ideas as inspiration for her next artworks. Her works are highly inspired by humans and nature. They are fun and cheerful because she likes to make people smile.

WORLD BICYCLE DAY GENEVA SPECIAL EVENT SHEET

World Bicycle Day, designated by the General Assembly and celebrated annually on 3 June, draws attention to the benefits of using the bicycle – a simple, affordable, clean and environmentally sustainable means of transportation. The bicycle contributes to cleaner air and less congestion, and makes education, health care and other social services more accessible to the most vulnerable populations.

According to the World Health Organization, safe infrastructure for walking and cycling is also a pathway for achieving greater health equity. People in the poorest urban sectors often cannot afford private vehicles, so walking and cycling can provide a form of transport while reducing the risk of heart disease, stroke, certain cancers, diabetes and even death. Accordingly, improved active transport is not only healthy, it is also equitable and cost-effective.

A sustainable transport system such as bicycling that promotes economic growth, reduces inequalities while bolstering the fight against climate change is critical to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.

UNPA celebrates World Bicycle Day on 3 June 2022 with a special event sheet 10 stamps in the denomination of CHF 1,50

WORLD CHESS DAY VIENNA SPECIAL EVENT SHEET

World Chess Day is celebrated annually on 20 July. The General Assembly proclaimed this day to mark the date of the establishment of the International Chess Federation in Paris in 1924.

The United Nations recognizes that sport, the arts and physical activity have the power to change perceptions, prejudices and behaviours, as well as to inspire people, break down racial and political barriers, combat discrimination and defuse conflict, and therefore contribute to the promotion of education, sustainable development, peace, cooperation, solidarity, social inclusion and health at the local, regional and international levels.

Chess is an ancient, intellectual and cultural game, and it encompasses elements of sport, science and art. As an affordable and inclusive activity, it can be played anywhere and by all, across the barriers of language, age, gender, physical ability or social status.

Chess is a global game that promotes fairness, inclusion and mutual respect, and it can contribute to an atmosphere of tolerance and understanding among peoples and nations.

UNPA celebrates World Chess Day on 20 July 2022 with a special event sheet of 10 stamps in the denomination of €1,00.

Special event sheet specifications:

Stamp size:	40.6 mm x 29.8 mm
Tab size:	26.6 mm x 29.8 mm
Sheet size:	279.4 mm x 215.9 mm

These special event sheets may be personalized with a photograph replacing the United Nations logo. Customers are invited to visit the UNPA stamp shops in New York or Vienna, or upload their photographs to the UNPA website: unstamps.org

Customers with standing orders for special event sheets will automatically receive this item through their accounts. All other customers can purchase this special event sheet in mint or cancelled condition by using the order form attached to this issue of Fascination.
