2023 CHINESE LUNAR CALENDAR – YEAR OF THE RABBIT NEW YORK SPECIAL EVENT SHEET – $1.40

On 20 January 2023, UNPA celebrates the Chinese Lunar Calendar - Year of the Rabbit with the issuance of a special event sheet of 10 stamps.

The Chinese New Year officially begins on 22 January 2023 and ends on 9 February 2024. The rabbit is the fourth animal sign in the Chinese zodiac cycle.

For this year, UNPA continues its new sheet design and format, which began in 2022. The 10 $1.40 denominated stamps feature the illustration of a rabbit, and the tabs to the left of the stamps have the white United Nations logo with a background in gold.

The stamps and the background of the sheet were illustrated by Tiger Pan (China), who also illustrated the Chinese Lunar Calendar – Year of the Tiger stamps in 2022 and the Chinese Lunar Calendar – Year of the Dog stamps in 2018.

A special Year of the Rabbit postcard featuring the same illustration as the stamps is also being issued.

The stamp sheets may be personalized with a photograph in place of the United Nations logo. Customers can either visit the UNPA stamp shops in New York, Geneva or Vienna or upload their photos to the UNPA website: unstamps.org

Customers with standing order requirements for special event sheets will automatically receive this item through their accounts. All other customers can purchase this special event sheet in either mint or cancelled condition by using the order form attached to this bulletin.

n 3 March 2023, UNPA continues its Endangered Species stamp series with the issuance of 12 stamps.

This year, the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) celebrates its fiftieth anniversary. To mark this occasion, UNPA is featuring species of flora and fauna for which there have been conservation success stories.

CITES is an international agreement between Governments that sets rules for international trade in wildlife. The Convention regulates international trade in more than 38,000 species of wild animals and plants. Its purpose is to ensure that this trade is legal, sustainable and traceable, and to ensure that international trade in specimens of wild animals and plants does not threaten their survival.

For more than 25 years, UNPA has issued stamps in support of CITES to celebrate the many beautiful and varied forms of wild fauna and flora

The artist

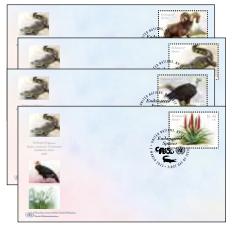

Rlon Wang (王荣亮) was born in Tianshui, Gansu province, China, in 1985. He graduated from Tianshui Normal University, Department of Fine Arts, where he majored in Chinese painting. Rlon now lives and works in Shenzhen, Guangdong province, and is well known as an illustrator and designer. He works with rich colours, making his style visually impactful. Most of his works combine traditional Eastern elements and Western shapes and presentation. His unique style is ornamental and modern. Since he became an independent illustrator in 2014, Rlon's commercial work has been highly praised.

This is Rlon Wang's second set of stamps for the United Nations. He also illustrated the 2019 Endangered Species stamp series.

WORLD ART DAY

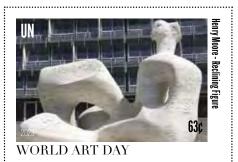

World Art Day was proclaimed at the fortieth session of UNESCO's General Conference in 2019 to promote the development, expression and enjoyment of art.

Each year, on 15 April, World Art Day celebrations help reinforce the links between artistic creations and society, encourage greater awareness of the diversity of artistic expressions and highlight the contribution of artists to sustainable development. It is also an occasion to shine a light on arts education in schools, as culture can pave the way for inclusive and equitable education.

Art nurtures creativity, innovation and cultural diversity for all people across the globe and plays an important role in sharing knowledge and encouraging curiosity and dialogue. We must continue to support environments where artists and artistic freedom are promoted and protected. In this way, furthering the development of art also furthers our means to achieve a free and peaceful world.

The designs represented on the stamps are from the UNESCO art collection. The stamp sheets have a description of the designs as well as a statement by the Director-General of UNESCO, Audrey Azoulay.

Due to the World Art Day stamp format, customers with STO requirements for a Block of 6 and Half-sheet commemorative stamps will receive a Block of 6 of the World Art Day stamps. Likewise, customers with STO requirements for a Block of Ten commemorative stamps will receive the full sheet for the World Art Day stamp issue.

FIFTH UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON THE LEAST DEVELOPED COUNTRIES (LDC5)

SPECIAL EVENT MINI-SHEET

The category of least developed countries (LDCs) was established by the General Assembly for the purpose of attracting special international support for the most vulnerable and disadvantaged members of the United Nations family.

The current list of LDCs includes 46 countries representing 33 in Africa, 13 in Asia and the Pacific and 1 in Latin America. Over 1 billion people live in these countries – about 13 per cent of world population – but their economies account for less than 2 per cent of world GDP and less than 1 per cent of global trade.

The mission of the Office of the High Representative for Least Developed Countries, Landlocked Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States (OHRLLS) is to raise awareness about the economic, social and environmental potential that exist in these countries and to ensure that the pressing needs of the 1.1 billion people who live in them, remain high on the international agenda.

The Fifth United Nations Conference on the Least Developed Countries (LDC5) will be held in Doha, Qatar in March 2023, putting the needs of the most vulnerable people back into focus. Investment in these young, vibrant countries can help drive sustainable growth for generations.
