FIRST DAY COVERS

2024 ENDANGERED SPECIES

On 26 April 2024, the United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) continues its Endangered Species stamp series with the issuance of 12 stamps.

The 2024 United Nations Endangered Species stamp series brings together a diverse array of fauna and flora, including species at the centre of the decisions adopted by Parties to the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) and discussions within the past year relating to sustainable wildlife conservation, management and trade of these species.

As the core objective of the Convention is to ensure that international trade in wild animals and plants is legal, sustainable and traceable, CITES works to uphold and maintain the survival in the wild of species listed in its appendices.

For 30 years, UNPA has issued stamps in support of CITES to celebrate the many beautiful and varied forms of wild fauna and flora and to raise awareness of the multitude of benefits that conservation provides to people.

The Artist

Julia Izabela is an artist from São Paulo, Brazil. Since 2015, she has been living in Milan, Italy, working as a freelance illustrator.

Her biggest source of inspiration is nature and its diversity of shapes and colours. Her goal is for her art to express how fascinating nature can be through its beauty, from microscopic to macroscopic forms.

Ms. Izabela began her academic path studying biology, starting with bachelor's degree programme in São Paulo, then graduating from Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade de Lisboa in Portugal, where she followed a scientific illustration course at Instituto de Artes e Ofícios of the Universidade Autónoma de Lisboa.

In 2016, her watercolour painting "Ground Control" won first prize in the Lucca Junior Illustration Contest at the Lucca Comics and Games festival in Italy.

Since 2017, Ms. Izabela has been working in fields such as textile design, editorial publication and diverse artistic projects.

In 2019 and 2020 Julia worked for the Università degli Studi di Milano-Bicocca, creating illustrations, schemes and animations for their biology didactics website Digital Diorama.

This is Ms. Izabela's first time illustrating stamps for UNPA.

2024 CHINESE LUNAR CALENDAR – YEAR OF THE DRAGON
NEW YORK SPECIAL EVENT SHEET – $1.50

Item No. 394.5808

On 19 January 2024, UNPA celebrates the Chinese Lunar Calendar – Year of the Dragon with the issuance of a special event sheet of 10 stamps.

The Chinese New Year officially begins on 10 February 2024 and the year continues until 28 January 2025.

The 10 $1.50 denominated stamps and background design feature the beautiful illustration of a dragon with decorative details. The tab to the left of the stamps has a white United Nations logo with a gold background.

Sheet size: 279.4 mm x 215.9 mm

Quantity: 24,000
Printer: Cartor Security Printing (France)

The stamps and the background design were illustrated by Chinese artist Tiger Pan, who also illustrated the United Nations Lunar Calendar series for the 2018 Year of the Dog, 2022 Year of the Tiger and 2023 Year of the Rabbit.

UNPA will also offer a Year of the Dragon postcard with the same design as the stamps.

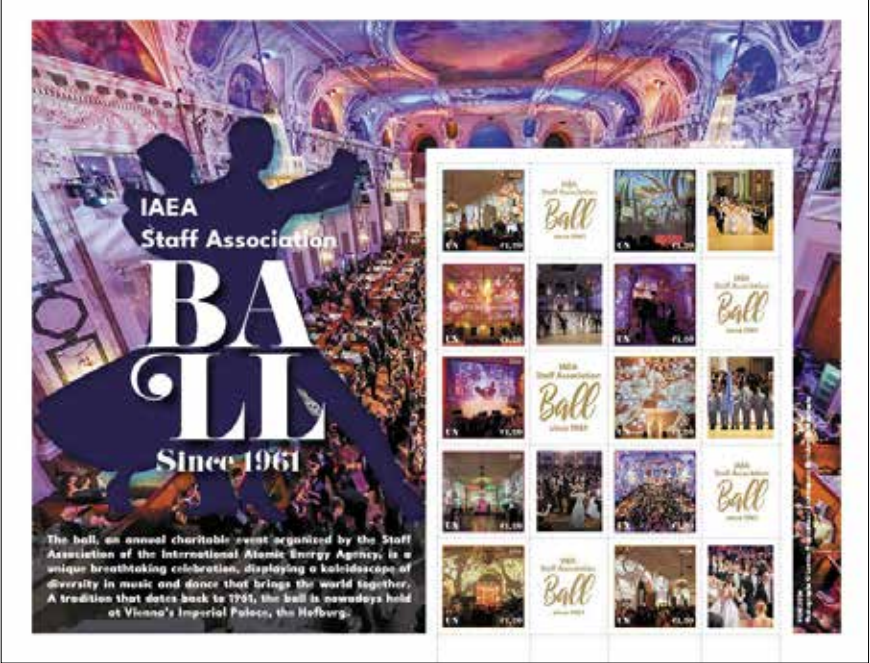

The dragon is the fifth in the series of 12 zodiac signs. It is said that the dragon represents good luck, strength and health, as well as the male element yang. The dragon is the only mythical creature of all the animals in the Chinese zodiac.

The stamp sheets may be personalized with a photograph to replace the United Nations logo. Customers can visit the UNPA stamp shops in New York or Vienna to have their photos taken in person, or they can upload their photos directly to the UNPA website here with ordering instructions: unstamps.org/personalized stamps

Customers with standing order requirements for special event sheets will automatically receive this item through their accounts. All other customers can purchase this special event sheet in either mint or cancelled condition by using the order form attached to this issue of Fascination.

Tab size: 26.6 mm x 29.8 mm

Sheet size: 279.4 mm x 215.9 mm

On 17 February 2024, UNPA will issue a personalized stamp sheet commemorating the IAEA Staff Association Ball.

The ball, an annual charitable event organized by the Staff Association of the International Atomic Energy Agency, is a unique breathtaking celebration, displaying a kaleidoscope of diversity in music and dance that brings the world together. A tradition that dates back to 1961, the ball is nowadays held at Vienna's Imperial Palace, the Hofburg.

The sheet of 10 stamps in the denomination of €1,20 features photographs of the ball from past years.

The stamp sheets can be personalized with a photograph to replace the tabs of the stamps.

Customers with standing orders for Vienna special event sheets will automatically receive this item through their accounts. All others can purchase the sheet in either mint or cancelled condition using the order form attached to this issue of Fascination.
